MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM THE AUTOMATIC STAY

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Comes now AmeriCredit Financial Services, Inc. dba GM Financial (“GM Financial”) filing this its Motion For Relief From The Automatic Stay (“Motion”), and in support thereof, would respectfully show:

1. That on November 19, 2020, Andrew R. Gross filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code.
2. This Court has jurisdiction of the Motion by virtue of 11 U.S.C. 105, 361 and 362 and 28 U.S.C. 157 and 1334.
3. On October 29, 2019, the Debtor entered into a retail installment contract for the purchase of a 2014 Chevrolet Silverado 1500 bearing vehicle identification number 1GCVKSEC7EZ101778. The contract was assigned to AmeriCredit Financial Services, Inc. and the Debtor became indebted to AmeriCredit in accordance with the terms of same. AmeriCredit Financial Services is designated as first lien holder on the title to the vehicle and holds a first purchase money security interest in the vehicle. AmeriCredit Financial Services now does business as GM Financial. A true copy of the contract and title inquiry to the vehicle are annexed hereto as Exhibits A and B.

4. As of February 18, 2021, the Debtor's account with GM Financial had a net loan balance of $17,214.62.

5. According to the February 2021 NADA Official Used Car Guide, the vehicle has a current retail value of $27,950.00.

6. The Debtor lists the vehicle as being surrendered in his Chapter 13 Plan.

7. The Debtor's account is past due in the amount of $505.24 through February 2021.

8. GM Financial alleges that the automatic stay should be lifted for cause under 11 U.S.C. 362(d)(1) in that GM Financial lacks adequate protection of its interest in the vehicle as evidenced by the following:

(a) The Debtor intends to surrender the vehicle; GM Financial requires stay relief in order to secure, process, and sell it.

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED, AmeriCredit Financial Services, dba GM Financial respectfully requests that upon final hearing of this Motion, (1) the automatic stay will be terminated as to GM Financial to permit GM Financial to seek its statutory and other available remedies; (2) that the stay terminate upon entry of this Order pursuant to the authority granted by Fed.R.Bank.P., Rule 4001(a)(3) and (3) GM Financial be granted such other and further relief as is just.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ William E. Craig
